

Our lifestyle options are known as a strength.

We have unique recreation opportunities in the community.

Our farming history has solidified our culture.

Acreage and country residential development attracts new citizens.

Our urban and rural communities in the region are growing in a sustainable manner.

BEAVER COUNTY

Citizens benefit from our diverse assessment base.

We have an industrial park.

Many new agricultural businesses have started operations.

We have a new seed plant.

There are numerous greenhouses in our community.

We see more businesses supporting our industry.

We are seen as leaders in the Capital Region.

We are recognized for our efforts in Priority Based Budgeting.

Our relationship with our municipal partners is seen as an example for others.

We drive innovation in waste management.

Niche crop development starts here.

Unique advancements in energy form part of our reputation.

BEAVER COUNTY

We are confident in the stability of our infrastructure investments.

We have a long term plan for our road network.

We have a financial plan in place to support our community assets.

Drainage plans are in place.

Industrial assessment has grown.

Municipal equipment is in sound condition.