Notice of Public Hearing

Proposed Material Change to Claystone Waste Ltd.
Municipally Controlled Corporation Business Plan

It is the intention of Beaver County Council to consider a material change to the Business Plan of Claystone Waste Ltd., a municipally-controlled corporation.

The purpose of the material change in the Business Plan is to enable Claystone Waste Ltd. and Claystone Waste Limited Partnership to incorporate or acquire a subsidiary or subsidiary corporations, to acquire or establish partnerships and interests in partnerships, and/or to enter into joint venture arrangements, leases, and other forms of arrangements with third parties.

This proposed material change will allow Claystone Waste and the Claystone Waste Limited Partnership to manage risk more effectively and to provide more flexibility and efficiency in carrying out the goals and objectives set out in the Business Plan. Any subsidiary, partnership, joint venture, lease, or any other arrangement will be bound by and be subject to the Business Plan as approved.

Further information, including the municipally-controlled corporation Business Plan and supporting documentation can be viewed on the County's website at www.beaver.ab.ca or by obtaining a copy at the Beaver County Office.

Beaver County Council will be holding a public hearing to give residents an opportunity to provide input. Details of the public hearing are as follows:
